A Rewarding Career Is Waiting For You

Make a difference in people's lives.

Why Support Services is the right career for you

Previous experience in disability support, mental health or aged care isn't necessary. We provide ongoing training and coaching so you can continually learn how to actively engage and support people in their lives.

- Just out of school and looking for a career with a future?
- Looking to return to the workforce?
- Graduating from tertiary studies and seeking experience in the community sector?
- Want to work for a not-for-profit organisation and make a difference in your community?
- Want to position your career in the fastest expanding sector in Victoria?
- Want to develop real transportable skills?

How to make a career change?

- Start exploring what it would be like to work in support services by attending one of our workshop and information sessions.
